

Deccan Herald 02.11.2009

Commercial St says 'no' to plastic bags

Bangalore: DHNS, Nov 1:

Finally, the no-plastic movement is here. Beginning Monday, shopaholics on the bustling Comm

The Commercial Street Shopkeepers' Association, in association with the National Geographic Channel

As part of the initiative, shopkeepers on the busy stretch will go plastic-free for 10 days in order to raise

The initiative was launched with a 'Go Green' painting competition in the presence of State police chief A

Speaking at the launch, Singh said: "It is not always that initiatives crucial to the future of our existence a

Senior vice-president of the National Geographic Channel, Rajesh Seshadri, who presided over the func

Eco-friendly bags

Meanwhile, the channel will also distribute about 40,000 eco-friendly bags in the City. Former Indian cric

Bangalore is the first, in the line of Indian cities, that the channel is taking the green campaign to.