

Deccan Herald 31.12.2009

No consensus on CDP at MCC meet

Mangalore, Dec 30, DHNS:

Mangalore City Corporation failed to arrive at a consensus and clear off the confusions pertaining

The discussion held over the last two general body meeting was carried over to Wednesday.

During the beginning of the meeting, Member Mariamma Thomas said that the ruling given by Mayor du

She sought explanation from the Municipal Commissioner about the obstacles preventing them from imp

Commissioner K N Vijayprakash said that though there are no confusion with regard to residential set up

Mayor M Shanker Bhat however ending the discussion said that if government does not reply to the que

Meanwhile, Member Naveenchandra informed that in many commercial set ups, though the blueprint ha

The members unanimously agreed that action must be taken against the officials and the building owner

Opposition members demanded withdrawal of 15 per cent penalty that can be imposed under single site

They said that the system is faulty as the said 15 per cent is payable to Mangalore Urban Development “Corporation does all the work and Muda walks away with the money. This is incorrect. Further those wi

Slaughter house

Corporator Premananda Shetty said that Health Officials raided Kudroli area and closed down only one

Health Officer Manjaiah Shetty said that they have raided and the one they found has been closed.

They will take action in future if they receive complaints on functioning of illegal slaughter house.

Members raised objection to the fact that MCC hires JCB shelling out a sum of Rs 43,67,880 annually fo

Members raising question at the utilisation of the JCB said that instead of paying so much for the JCBs,

Control of stray dogs, asphaltation of interior roads, maintenance of pay and use toilets were some of th