

The Hindu 07.10.2014

Corpn. begins to remove flex boards

: Civic authorities of Kochi have begun taking down flex boards and other illegal publicity materials from the city on Monday.

On day one, the target was flex boards of political parties. Around 400 boards were pulled down.

Later, the publicity materials displayed at private holdings will also be removed. The local body would impose fine on those failing to remove the banned materials from private holdings, said a communication issued by Kochi Mayor Tony Chammany.