

The Times of India □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ 03.01.2014

Several civic projects to figure in next fiscal

VASHI: Even as the city is looking forward to the inauguration of the iconic new civic headquarters on Palm Beach Road, more ambitious projects will figure in the next fiscal, according to city engineer Mohan Dagoankar.

"An auditorium will be constructed in sector 5, Airoli. Infrastructural works have already started in the Trans-Thane Creek Industrial MIDC area ," said Dagaonkar.

He also said that nearly Rs 140-crore work of repairing the service roads near Thane-Belapur Road is on. The civic body will also build a fire complex at sector 16 ,Vashi at a cost of Rs 40-50 crore.

The civic body will be inviting bids for a swimming pool at a cost of Rs 51 crore and a sports complex at Vashi.