

The Hindu 30.03.2013

Corporation to revive page in Facebook

Staff Reporter

Coimbatore Corporation has initiated efforts to revive its page on the social networking site Facebook.

According to Commissioner G. Latha, a team led by the Deputy Commissioner S. Sivarasu and she would go to Madurai in a couple of days to learn from Madurai Collector Anshul Mishra, who, during his tenure as Corporation Commissioner, ensured that the Corporation's page on Facebook was active.

Ms. Latha said that the team would comprise 12 employees at various categories and they would be there for two days from April 1 to 3.

Mr. Mishra had put in place a page for the Madurai

Collectorate/district administration which was active and well appreciated, she said.

Members of the public in Coimbatore could post complaints, suggestions or give feedback on the page. The Corporation team in-charge of the page would respond immediately by forwarding the complaints and also posting the follow-up action.