

The Times of India 29.10.2010

HC seeks list of city's illegal constructions

CHENNAI: In a significant development, the Madras high court has directed the Chennai Metropolitan Development Authority (CMDA) to furnish a list of unauthorised constructions in the city and explain the action taken against the violators.

The first bench comprising Chief Justice M Yusuf Eqbal and Justice T S Sivagnanam gave the interim directive on a public interest writ petition filed by T Solomon of Choolai. As per a in July this year, 5,000 building violations had taken place in the city over the past three years.

CMDA

```
var zz=0;var sldsh=0;var bellyaddiv = '
';                var stindex=100;                var stp=150;
    var taglen=0;                var tmp;                var tagcheck = new Array("div","span","br","font","a");                var storycontent = document.getElementById("storydiv").innerHTML;                var firstpara = storycontent.substring(0,storycontent.toLowerCase().indexOf(" )).toLowerCase();                function findptt(cnt){                zz++;
    if(zz == 10)return;                var xxx=-1,yyy=-1;                var ccnt = cnt;                for(ii=0; ii < tagcheck.length; ii++){
xxx = ccnt.indexOf(")
```