

The Hindu 15.02.2014

Building sealed

Officials of Chennai Metropolitan Development Authority on Friday sealed a building that was constructed without applications for planning permission. A note from CMDA said the owner had constructed basement, a ground floor and three additional floors in total violation of norms. Despite a stop work notice issued in November, the owner went ahead and completed the building.