

The Hindu 29.09.2014

Corporation plans to study skill sets

The Municipal Corporation is undertaking a study to determine skill sets and deficiencies of employees in manufacturing units, factories, service units and the transport department.

The corporation has entrusted the task to a private firm, Conso Tree.

The exercise is being taken up as part of a Central government scheme to ascertain skill gaps in industries.