

The Hindu 23.07.2009

Service tax revised in Dindigul

Staff Reporter

DINDIGUL: Dindigul Municipality has revised the Service Tax for commercial buildings, industrial units and factories for handling solid wastes, according to a release from the Municipality here on Wednesday.

Already the municipal council had approved the revision of tax structure and passed a resolution on June 25 in this connection. Persons who have any objections may represent in writing to the Municipal Commissioner within 30 days (between July 25 and August 24). Objections submitted after this deadline would not be considered.

According to the revised structure it would be Rs.5,000 for marriage hall, cinemas, hotels, textiles show rooms and two wheeler stand, Rs.4,000 for lodges, Rs.3,000 for private hospital or clinic, factories, Rs.2,000 for grocery wholesale shops, commission shed, breakfast stalls, leather units, footwear shops, note book sales centres, book stalls, bamboo tiles sales depot, finance office and metal vessels shop,

Rs.1,500 for rice and grains whole sale, Rs.1,000 for paper marks, private school or office, home appliances, petrol bunks, ice making, textiles shops and pillow and bed sales, Rs.800 for sweet shops, food production tyre vulcanising centre, cracker sales, stockists, petrol bunks (under B category), fertilizer shops, chemicals shops, Rs.750 for chicken, mutton, fish, oil, milk sales shops, pharmacies and fancy stores, Rs.600 for printing press, banana leaf sale and plastic goods, Rs.500 for cool drinks shops and dry fish sales, fruit and vegetable shop, home appliances (small), small grocery shops, tea shops, workshops, paint sales, godowns and groundnut and fried grams sale, Rs.400 for tailoring shop, Rs.300 for mobile phone sales and photostat shop and Rs.200 for telephone booth and goldsmith shop only.