

The Hindu 25.03.2013

Corporation drive against unauthorised hoardings

Staff Reporter

The Coimbatore Corporation has warned of legal action against those erecting unauthorised hoardings, wall paintings, posters, digital advertisement boards, etc.

A release from the civic body says that there are advertisers who have installed advertisement boards that are over and above the permitted size.

The Corporation will take a serious view of such advertisements. It will initiate legal action that may end up with the persons concerned facing prison term and/or payment of fine.